I understand that if I violate any condition of my release, a warrant for my arrest will issue immediately. After arrest, the terms and conditions of any further release will be redetermined.

Violation of any of the foregoing conditions of release may result in the immediate issuance of a warrant for the defendant's arrest, a revocation or release, an order of detention, as provided in 18 U.S.C. §3148, and a prosecution for failure to appear while released as provided in 18 U.S.C. §3146, and a charge of contempt, as provided in 18 U.S.C. §401, which could result in a possible term of imprisonment and/or fine.

This sentence shall be consecutive to any other sentence and must be imposed in addition to the sentence received for the offense itself.

If the defendant was released in connection with a charge, or while awaiting sentence, surrender for the service of a sentence, or appeal or certiorari after conviction, for:

(1) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment, or imprisonment for a term of fifteen years or more, the defendant may be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both;
